WHAT

The Early Literacy Project is one of WestREAP's Whakamana Te Whanau programmes designed to support family learning.

WHO

A caregiver/parent and child 3 ½ to 5 years old, will work with an Early Literacy Tutor from WestREAP.

WHY

To support family/whanau who feel they will benefit from their child gaining early literacy skills before they start school.

WHERE

Families will be visited in their homes by the Early Literacy Tutors.

HOW

They work alongside the caregiver/parent and the child, having fun with books.

TIMES

We are flexible and will arrange the best times to visit with each whanau.

HOW LONG

The programme consists of 2-18 sessions for one hour each week.

FREE IN YOUR HOME

The programme is funded through WestREAP and sponsors.

LENGTH OF PROGRAMME

We will meet with you to discuss what we can offer your family.

WHAT ABOUT...

Other Early Childhood commitments? It is vital to keep these up. Session times are designed to fit with your other commitments.
